

It is with mixed emotions that I inform you it is time for me to move on. My husband is now with 1st Marine Division so the time has come for me to pass the torch. It has been such a great honor serving as CLR-15's Key Volunteer Coordinator and I will miss the communication with the families I have come to know. At the same time, it is a natural part of the military environment to transition every few years and I find this aspect exciting and filled with the potential for new endeavors.

Until a new Key Volunteer Coordinator is appointed, your contact will be the CLR-15 Family Readiness Officer, Major Stewart, who may be contacted at (760) 725-8397. If you are interested in becoming a Key Volunteer or Key Volunteer Coordinator, please let Major Stewart know and he can fill you in on the details.

Again, it has been an honor serving you and I wish all of you the best of luck.
